Pro-bites.....

As summer begins to wane, thoughts turn expectantly to the new Probus season. Our first meeting will take place on the very first day of September at 10am. As usual, the September meeting of Probus Perth will include a short Annual General Meeting. This Probian contains three items of interest for discussion at the AGM: the slate of candidates who will stand for office in 2010-2011, the audited year-end financial statement and a proposed new Privacy Policy. For those not turned on by AGM business, the report by David Batchelor on the Guatemalan Eye Clinic project promises to be interesting. You can get a flavour of what he might say by going to the project blog at <http://www.perthrotaryeyes.blogspot.com>.

Last year's program was very successful in that we had more special activities than ever before and most were well and enthusiastically attended. We hope to build on that success in the coming year and to incorporate the suggestions of members. If you would be willing to take on the organization of a special event next year or wish to suggest an event, please speak to Mary Kilgour or Glen Pettinger.

Protecting the Bombers Electronically During WW II

By Carol Trischuk

Jim Gilpin

Probus welcomed Jim Gilpin to the June meeting. Jim served under Commander-in-Chief, Bomber Command, Arthur 'Bomber' Harris from 1942 to the end of the War. Newly developed electronic navigation aids such as radar guidance and the H2S air-borne mapping systems made night bombing raids possible, but signals from this equipment also exposed the bombers to enemy defenders. Jim piloted a Mark III Halifax filled with equipment the purpose of which was to provide electronic and other counter-measures to protect the accompanying Allied bombers from German detection and attack.

Jim flew many missions and, as he put it, 'had some engagements with German guns'. On one occasion, having lost hydraulics and undercarriage, his aircraft belly-landed safely and was immediately bulldozed aside to make room for the following planes to land.

He told us he was stationed near Sandringham, the Royal family's preferred Christmas residence. His squadron received visits from the King, and from Churchill who shook hands with every airman.

Jim's career following the War took him to the Defence Research Labs (DRB) at Shirley's Bay near Ottawa. His projects included developing antidotes for nerve gas, submarine filtration units and 'Bearclaws' to assist helicopter landings on frigates and destroyers at sea. He retired from DRB in 1967, mainly, he says, due to Paul Hellyer's unification of the three armed services.

Golf Tournament & Book Exchange

On Monday, 21 June, fifteen intrepid members of Probus set out on a beautiful day at the Perth Golf club to test their mettle against one another. In the end, two teams emerged with identical scores of one over par - very commendable, considering the pressure of such an intensely sought-for prize - the Perth Claret Golf Device!!! Unfortunately, one winner had to be determined and Ernie Trischuk's team of Irene Peterkin and Marg and John Barrie defeated Bob Black's team of Nancy Pettinger and Jeanne and Dale Nugent by retrogression, a method which apparently only the Tournament Committee understands. After an enjoyable dinner attended by thirty members, prizes in the form of favoured books were exchanged. From the level of noise generated by table conversation, it was apparent that everyone had a good time, even though the Voluntary Glee Club singalong was not part of this year's program.

Speakers' Corner

- September - David Batchelor on the Guatemalan Eye Clinic ~ a post project report.
- October - Ottawa University Professor Walter Baker on his walking tour from Lands End in Cornwall to John o'Groats in North Eastern Scotland.

Management Team Notes

- The current Management Team has discussed a communication from Probus Canada which offered Probus clubs extended Directors and Officers liability coverage for office holders liability. The Team concluded that this would not be necessary for Probus Perth, in view of the relatively slight risk and the significant cost which would have to be passed along to members. Instead, the Team proposes to develop a standard waiver form for all activities. More information is available on our website by clicking here.
- To avoid the fee payment line-ups that normally take place at that meeting, the Management Team is urging members to renew by mail. There is a renewal form attached to this edition. Please fill out this form and send it together with your cheque to Probus Box 20131, Perth, Ont., K7H 3M6.
- Many thanks to Carol and Ernie Trischuk for their contributions to this edition. At the June meeting, 7 members put up their hands to volunteer as contributing editors for this year's editions, so we are covered up to an including the March edition. The final 3 editions (April, May and Summer 2011) are still up for grabs, if you would like to volunteer your prose.

Self-introduction ~ Geoffrey Richard Newman

Geoffrey was born in Montreal, the only child of Elsie (CAPE) and Edgar Newman. He was educated at various schools in the Montreal area, including the two-room school in Highlands in Lasalle, and Stanstead College, graduating in 1951.

He joined the Royal Canadian Navy in 1952, serving in numerous ships and shore establishments on the east coast. He qualified as a naval aviator in 1954 and as a drone (remote controlled aircraft) pilot in 1957, both through US Navy programs. Geoffrey transferred from active regular service to the active reserves in late 1961. He served at HMCS Donnacona, in Montreal, including a period as Executive Officer, then retired six years later with the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

After moving to Lachine, Geoffrey became a registered securities representative. In 1977, he launched Newman Financial Services (NFS), specializing in estate administration and financial counseling. He and his wife moved to Perth in 1992, reducing NFS business with intention of retiring. His hobbies include philately, postal history, gardening and now genealogy. He has exhibited stamp and postal history collections at national shows, and published numerous articles and one book on that topic.

Special Events
